Momentum wins pension schemes CIO appointment from Lloyds Banking Group

---

London, 16 March 2015

Momentum Investment Solutions & Consulting ('Momentum ISC') has been appointed to act as the CIO for Lloyds Bank's pension schemes. Richard Cooper, Head of Momentum ISC, will become the chief investment officer for the pension schemes during the term of the appointment and will lead the teams responsible for the management and oversight of the investment of the Group's pension scheme assets.

Richard joined Momentum in August 2014 to establish and develop the Investment Solutions & Consulting capability. Prior to joining Momentum, Richard was at Mercer for 20 years, where he was a Senior Partner in the Investment Business.

Momentum (part of the MMI group) is a multi-national financial services provider offering advice, products and services to enhance the financial wellness of its clients and beneficiaries.

The value of investments in discretionary accounts, and the income derived, may fluctuate and it is possible that an investor may incur losses, including a loss of the principal invested. Past performance is not generally indicative of future performance. Investors whose reference currency differs from that in which the underlying assets are invested may be subject to exchange rate movements that alter the value of their investments.

Under our multi-management arrangements, we selectively appoint underlying sub-investment managers and funds to actively manage underlying asset holdings in the pursuit of achieving mandated performance objectives. Annual investment management fees are payable both to the multimanager and the manager of the underlying assets at rates contained in the offering documents of the relevant portfolios (and may involve performance fees where expressly indicated therein).
